

2022 ANNUAL REPORT

A GLOBAL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY THAT BELIEVES LIVES AND NATIONS ARE CHANGED THROUGH PRAYER

A WORLD CONNECTED

When I consider the thousands of friends who participated in prayer walking training throughout our network over the past year, I am reminded of the very clear words of Jesus, “I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will believe in Me through their word; that they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me.”

That the world may believe that You sent Me!

This is why we use the word GO so often at SEAPC. We are charged by Christ and surrounded by the Holy Spirit to fill the earth with goodness and compassion. We are part of God’s plan, and we are ever-growing. I believe that one day we will witness a world connected through prayer that brings Christ-based change to those in need. We are coming closer to that day, and you are a vital part of this vision coming to pass. It is important to see Jesus right now praying for this world. I’m humbled to consider those prayers immeasurable in our understanding of their power yet intimately calculated in the lives and hopes of all creation. He holds it all—each prayer-walking friend, each life changed as a result, each channel for needs to be met, and each nation connected and changed through the spirit of revival. Yet in it all, He reaches down to you and me with precisely what we need. Prayer is how I put my hope and trust in Jesus, love is His exchange to me. That love never fails me and causes the world to believe.

Please receive this annual report with joy and humility. What I report today to you is only as a witness to the resurrection power of Jesus Christ at work in this small part of His very big thing! Thank you for your part. Some of you put your prayers into action by walking in the streets of your community as Attack Lambs or pouring your prayers into the life of the orphan, abandoned, or at-risk child brought to SEAPC for help. Some of you are praying for answers in autism, for the elimination of abortion and trafficking, for unity and peace between cultures, for poverty to be replaced by prosperity, or for a world where access to learning doesn't come at a cost. This report should give you great joy and hope, knowing that Our God answers prayer and we are witnessing lives and nations changed as a result.

It has been said, “Change does not come easy!” Serving as the President of a mission that prays, let me tell you that just because something is simple does not mean it is easy. One life changed through prayer is worth every penny accounted for in the following pages. Each hardship, challenge, adversity, or battle along the way only expands the testimony of the faithful men and women we serve alongside and, more so, the faithfulness of their God.

"It is far better to be a small part of a big thing than a big part of a small thing." In the more than 30 years since SEAPC's founding, this quote and the mindset it embodies have become deeply rooted in our culture. We believe in this humble value and are blessed to see its expressive strength fueling nation-changing revival today. Not only do we celebrate and stand with revivals hosted by Gen Z men and women across college campuses in America today, but also in pockets of every nation we serve today in prayer!

In 2022 we witnessed a new vision emerge from the depths of a prophecy that one day, Pittsburgh would be more famous for God than steel. God called us to our backyard, to the streets of Pittsburgh, believing for revival. We committed our time to walk and pray, gaining the dust from the communities on our feet and, more importantly, the right to speak the words of Christ into the lives of those who live within its cultures.

"One day, God will bring people together in Heinz Field stadium to pray and worship." We heard this vision countless times from old and new friends alike—from pastors to celebrities and even teenagers who had listened to a similar call from God to start walking and praying in the city.

Not one of them knew the other, but all knew the same vision. We knew it was God's will for SEAPC to help make the event happen. God is faithful to His word, and we need only submit ourselves to His will. God provided, paved the way, and united a city in worship.

On July 10th, 2022, Pittsburgh Prays witnessed the values of today's revival unfold. There was no outside celebrity draw, merchandise tables, sponsors, or heroes. Just a city submitted to Jesus Christ. This day was a tithe unto the Lord, a heart posture, and submission to the values of a Renaissance in the Spirit of God. In worship, we took part and consumed the values of a movement, put on a new skin, and emerged to go forward in love, joy, and power. Our small parts became a very big thing!

GARDEN OF HOPE

Prayer walking the nation of Laos from the mid-1990s until today has not been easy. Like most of post-war southeast Asia, Laos' infrastructure and poverty have danced together to leave entire communities isolated and virtually unreached. Despite the challenge, hundreds of SEAPC friends have faithfully covered the nation of Laos in prayer from that day until now. We believe that if we spiritually plow a nation in prayer, God will guide us to the right relationships and platforms for Him to build His church. We believe in nation-changing revival. Such is the current story for Laos.

SEAPC in Laos, led masterfully by our friend and mentor Hubert Chan, proved the faithfulness of God to the nation of Laos by simply covering itself in the dust and dirt of the people and proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ. A nation has changed, and Hubert stood firm in the gap — giving his life, facing the full magnitude of demonic oppression, and declaring a vision for the future to the people.

That vision was called the Garden of Hope. Launched first underground and undercover to protect new Christians who faced potential life imprisonment or capital punishment for conversion, The Garden soon became a center for learning for young Christians. Part of the vision was to reach each of Laos' people groups with the Gospel and bring representatives from every group to the Garden to learn the Bible, agricultural sciences, business skills, English, and music. Those students committed to a two-year paid program with a guarantee by SEAPC to match the funds they had saved on completion to help them initiate their business upon their return to their home village.

Today many of those graduates lead thriving businesses and provide daily for their communities. One of the Garden's first grads is named David. When David graduated in 2007, he started his own pig, mushroom, and vegetable farm in northern Laos. Today that farm has become a model for the nation in agriculture, and the government of Laos sponsored David to travel internationally and represent the nation's potential in business. David's testimony is one of hard work, determination, commitment, and, most importantly, faith and hope in Jesus Christ. He is a nation changer.

Today those dusty roads in Laos have become paved. That is, for the most part! The economy is growing rapidly, and the isolated tribes of the nation are finding places to grow and thrive together. The Garden of Hope has reached sustainability, success, and completion in Christ!

We did not forget about Laos, remained faithful, and tended to the garden! God brought the increase, and a nation has changed.

FRIENDS AROUND THE TABLE

It is with overflowing joy that we give testimony of four Friends Around the Table Gatherings having taken place in 2022. Over 800 global friends across four generations and 27 nations came to the Table this year. We witnessed more than we could have imagined! “Friends” is not only found in these gatherings but also in an ongoing lifestyle of daily friendship that has sent over 9,000 people to pray in their nations and serve the local church and communities they call home. Our times have never been more conducive for a convergence of all parts and portions of the Body to bring nation-changing revival. 2022 saw these friends from four global regions—Asia/Pacific, Europe/Middle East, Africa, and the Americas—who have been frontline leaders in a time of great global testing receive real refreshing and strength. A strong leadership base for these four regions has also emerged this year! We give God praise!

Friends Around the Table is the engine—the lifeblood of prayer and relationship in which SEAPC serves the nations. Prayer is our priority, and our passion is to see people’s needs met through Jesus. To gather the generations who are praying together in a nation for change, hear what God has spoken, and then surround them with vital friendships to witness those prayers made manifest—this is Friends Around the Table. Momentum continues into this year, and we anticipate God doing what only He can do. As John 6:51 speaks about, Him laying down His Son for the life of the world is the Table that won’t fail. We are blessed and humbled to carry this Table to the world with you again in 2023!

Billy Graham said, “Organizations that bear the name of Christ ought to have the highest possible financial and ethical standards.” We, the board and staff at SEAPC, believe this and are members of the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability (ECFA), of which Dr. Graham was a founder. But, in real life, what does this really mean?

First, it means maintaining integrity, the quality of being honest, and having strong moral principles. Proverbs 10:9 says, “Whoever walks in integrity walks securely, but whoever takes crooked paths will be found out.” In 2 Corinthians 1:12, Paul says, “Now this is our boast: Our conscience testifies that we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially in our relations with you, with integrity and godly sincerity. We have done so, relying not on worldly wisdom but on God's grace."

Second, it relates to trust, a firm belief in the reliability, truth, ability, or strength of someone or something. In Daniel 6:4 we find how he demonstrated trust: "At this, the administrators and the satraps tried to find grounds for charges against Daniel in his conduct of government affairs, but they were unable to do so. They could find no corruption in him because he was trustworthy and neither corrupt nor negligent."

The third part relates to relationship. This is the way in which two or more people regard and behave toward each other. In Philippians 2:5 we are told "In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus." In our relationship with you, our partners in ministry, we strive to maintain a high level of trust and financial accountability.

We are doing this in the following ways: 1) The annual independent audit by Wessel & Company, Certified Public Accountants. 2) Membership in ECEA. 3) Internal policies designed to maintain integrity and accountability that are regularly reviewed and updated in cooperation with members of the Board. 4) Oversight and review of the financial records of our partners participating in our projects. 5) Regular reviews to determine that our administration is effective in prioritizing funds for work in the nations.

God blessed the ministry through you in 2022. As you review the financial reporting for 2022, you will see a significant increase in what was received and distributed. Thank you.
